The Federal Reserve Bank, of Richmond, has declared a 5 per cent dividend on the average capital paid in by the member banks to cover the period from November 1, 1914, to December 31, 1915. Under the law, the member banks are entitled to receive 6 per cent dividend, and the payments are accumulative. The governors of the bank say the 6 per cent dividend could have been paid had it not been for the extraordinary expense of organization. They state that the remaining 1 per cent will be paid at the time of disbursement for the next WEAK IN THE FIRST HOUR the time of disbursement for the next dividend period.

New York, Dec. 29.—Cotton weskened today under the graph and telephone services, thus curtailing business. Total transactions were about half what they were the previous session. Prices were unaffected by a report that the Austrian note would be favorable and another that an uitimatum would be sent to Austria providing the note was unfavorable.

Weak at the Opening.

The weakness at Tuesday's close continued at the opening, but a firmer tone developed in the second hour, with the rails, led by St. Paul, as favorites. Tire stock, both on the exchange and on the curb were strong. Goodrich was prominent. The coppers did little, although dividends were resumed by Greene Canana. Oil stocks were the strong features of the late dealings, California and Mexican Petroleum being active and higher, Texas Oil, however, closed with a fractional net loss. Anglo-French bonds continue the dark spot on the speculative horizon and touched the new low of 93 7-8.

Bethlehem Steel common in the last few minutes of trading advanced from 458 to 469, a loss of 10 points, but closed with a net decline of 21-2.

Dan $ayles' Want Advertising Talk

A MAN HAS GOT TO LOSE MORE THAN MONEY TO BE "BROKE."

The only man of whom it can truthfully be said. "He is 'broke." is the man who has lost confidence in himself and faith in his fellow-men.

And sad to note, such a man is soon initiated into the "Shiftless Society," that big brotherhood of decayed principles which flourishes in every city, town and village in the world.

But unless a man or woman (for I am talking to women as much as to meni ACCEPT defeat, and slinks from society and its opportunities like a whipped dog, there is always hope.

"ACCEPTS defeat,"—note that word "ACCEPTS." Will you accept or will you DEFY defeat? It's up to YOU—you hold your fate in your own hands. Your own mind is the mold in which your future is cast. To what good purpose are you going to adapt it?

IT'S UP TO YOU!!
